Wines of the month

Kerner, Graf von Meran, Cantina Merano, DOC Alto Adige, 2015, Italy

This 100% Kerner is a classy and spicy white wine from the Alto Adige / Sudtiro region in the north of Italy on the Alpine border with Austria. Surrounded by terrifying steep vineyards, lovingly tended by hand, Merano produce wines with Alpine verve, minerality and a depth of fruit uncommon in Italy. It is easy to understand why Alto Adige wines and Cantina Merano in particular; are some of the most sought after in Italy. Straw yellow with greenish reflexes. The bouquet is delicate with notes of peach and nutmeg. Full and strong on the palate, persistent in length. A truly beautiful & elegant wine. Please try !

Barbera D'Asti Superiore, Le Rochette, Tenuta Olim Bauda, 2014, Italy

The Barbera d'Asti Superiore Le Rocchette is a local product par excellence, born from the brilliant interplay between this celebrated indigenous Piedmontese grape variety and the multifaceted terroir of Monferrato, as well as from the secular experience of the Olim Bauda farm, now run by the fourth generation of the family Bertolino. Purple color with violet tints. Pleasant, intense, elegant and complex aromas of ripe fruit, plum, cocoa and spices. The taste is smooth, soft and graceful with good structure and moderate alcohol content. The soft tannins associated with a certain sweetness gives the wine a perfect full-bodiedness. The finale has length with a lot of charm.

Prosecco, Prior, Bortolomol, DOCG Brut

Handmade with pride from Valdobbiadene soil. As dry as prosecco gets !

Champagne Delamotte, Brut NV

From the legendary makers of Salon champagne & vineyards which enjoy the exalted Grand Cru status common to all the best of houses.

Louis Roederer Brut Premiere NV

Louis Roederer Brut Rose 2011

Louis Roederer Cristal 2009

White Wine

- Trebbiano d'Abruzzo Azienda Vinicola Arche DOC 2016, Italy 17.95
Super soft, ripe Trebbiano with lovely white pear and apple.
- Chenin Blanc, The Veldt Range, 2016, South Africa 21.95
Aromas reminiscent of melon & lychees with soft tropical fruit.
- Sauvignon Blanc, Montes, Casablanca, 2016, Chile 24.95
Intense aromatics of herbs and cut grass on the nose, with grapefruit, lime and white peach on the palate
- Muscadet, La Roche Blanche, Domaine des Herbauges, 2016, France 25.95
Bottled straight of the lees to add extra complexity makes this classic bone dry white wine the perfect companion to shellfish & seafood.
- Pinot Grigio, Tolloy, Sudtiro, Alto Adige, 2017, Italy 27.95
A complex pinot grigio with an intense & ample bouquet that transitions from nuances of pear, white peach & melon to delicate floral notes, hand selected grapes from the Italian Dolomites.
- Godello, Bodegas y Vinedos Merayo, 2016, Spain 27.95
This inviting, elegant expression of godello offers scents of green apple, pear, and plenty of citrusy spritz. Palate is tart with green herbal notes & ripe, carefully handled fruit beneath.
- Vernaccia di San Gimignano, Alata, Rampa di Fugnano, DOCG, 2015, Italy 26.95
Grown around the eponymous hilltop town near Siena. Fruity and pleasantly soft on the palate, with distinct roasted almond & ripe apple flavours that continue on the finish. This unique variety is known for being taut and zesty, but also slightly honeyed in character.
- Rioja Blanco, Campillo, Fermentado en Barrica, 2016, Spain 27.95
This wine brings the freshness and vigour of youth and the nuances provided by its stay for 41 days in fine French oak.
- Gruner Veltliner, Domaine Wachau, Terrassen, 2016, Austria 29.95
A light introduction to Gruner Veltliner & the Wachau, fresh, aromatic and racy. Pure drinking pleasure. A fantastic aperitif.
- Malvazija, Gasper, 2015, Slovenia 28.95
Malvazija is the local name for Malvasia Istriana, a grape native to the Slovenian and Croatian coasts. Floral and stone-fruit aromas with lime overtones. The fresh, zesty palate has spring floral characters, yet is well rounded with almond and honey intensity.
- Sauvignon Blanc, Tinpote Hut, Marlborough, 2016, New Zealand 33.95
Aromas of passion fruit, blackcurrant, lemongrass and fresh thyme make this a truly stunning example of a Marlborough Sauvignon.
- Chardonnay IGT, Bathilde, Château La Clotte Fontane, 2016, France 33.95
Bright yellow in colour the nose is fresh and lively with aromas of white fruits and vanilla hints. On the palate well integrated acidity boosts the fruit aromas, long and smooth finish.
- Gavi di Gavi, Lugarara, Giustiniana, DOCG, 2016, Italy 36.95
Tight, nervy and full of energy, and with a delicious core of tongue-teasing preserved lemon and juicy white apple flesh, this is a superior example of Cortese.

Vermentino di Sardegna DOC, Tino, Mora &amp; Memo, 2016, Italy  The best vermentino comes from Sardinia &amp; this is the best vermentino in Sardinia. Floral lift on the nose with a great oily texture of stone fruit.	37.95
Lugana, I Frati, Ca dei Frati, 2016, Italy  Light yellow in colour with a concentrated but fresh perfume of white flowers, peaches and ripe lemons. On the palate it has excellent depth and balance, with lovely richness and a crisp, lively finish. A stunning wine from Lake Garda.	39.95
Albarino, Pazo Senorans, Rias Baixas, 2016, Spain  The leading producer in Rias Baixas in North West Spain, Pazo de Senorans is family run and has been producing wonderfully crafted, award winning, single varietal wines since 1989. Offering a satisfying balance of power and finesse, the palate is lush and round with good body and acidity. Aromas of nectarine, fresh figs, orange zest and white flowers come through on the nose, accompanied by citrus and more exotic tropical fruit flavours on the palate and mineral finish.	41.95
Harlem to Hope, B. Vintners, Stellenbosch, 2016, South Africa  Gavin Bruwers four way blend of mostly Chenin with Semillon &amp; dry Muscat is a partially barrel fermented number with an appealing floral lift, grapey sweetness, creamy lees and a hint of oak.	40.95
Strandwolf, B.Vinters, Stellenbosch, 2016, South Africa  This 100% Chardonnay has a citrus core of fresh limes, which is well defined with crunchy apple and pineapple. Salinity and mineral elements reveals itself on the palate with delicate oak spice adding complexity. The wine remains fresh, yet restraint, with great length and depth as a result of some 10 months lees contact	40.95
Chablis, Domaine Vincent Damp, 2015, France  Citrus and white fruits with a hint of minerality on the finish. Its nice balance and complexity comes from old vines. Vincent Damp is one of Chablis' rising stars. The youngest generation of an impressive Chablis lineage, Vincent is the son of Daniel Damp and grandson of Jean Defaix, both admired Chablis producers.	42.95
Sancerre, Domaine Nozay, 2016, France  Ripe grapefruit aromas which are also very limestone and flinty in character. Attractive mouth filling texture with real substance and breadth. Quite a serious style here which shows in the finish, charged with zippy, crunchy structure.	42.95
Rully, La Chatalienne, Olivier Leflaive, 2013, France  Fine, clear, lemon-and-lime in appearance, with a classy, detailed nose, this has lovely integration between fruit and barrel. It fills the mouth, and extends to an enjoyable finish.	45.95
Soave Classico, La Rocca, Pieropan, 2014, Italy  Classic La Rocca aromas of almond essence and honey lead to an elegant and beautifully balanced palate, with notes of vanilla and almond kernel, ripe apricots and exotic fruit. The long finish has a light mineral edge.	47.95
Branco, Quinta das Carvalhas, DOC Douro, 2014, Portugal  Not many Douro whites get the heavy bottle treatment like this fine wood-aged wine. It is a half-and-half blend of Gouveio and Viosinho, ripe and with layers of toast and intense yellow fruits as well as citrus acidity. Although full-bodied its freshness and lively acidity derived from this moderately cool vintage, induces a sense of subtleness, finishing with persistent and extensive flavours.	54.95
Assyrtiko, Vassaltis, Santorini, 2016, Greece  Exquisitely fresh, clean and vibrantly mineral, this gorgeously moreish white screams of Santorini's volcanic terroir. Aromatic aromas of fresh citrus and grapefruit, giving way to a dry, mineral, yet succulent palate, dripping with nectarines, wet stones and sea salt.	57.95

Red Wine

Sangiovese Rubicon, Azienda Vincola Arche 2016, Italy	17.95
This is a lovely soft, spicy Sangiovese. Dark ruby in colour with herbaceous cherries and violets on the nose.
Carignan, Vieilles Vignes, Mont Rocher, 2015, France	22.95
100% carignan from old vines producing a well-structured wine with dark berry fruit & spice on the palate with a zingy & uplifting finish.
Merlot, Montes, Colchagua Valley, 2015, Chile	24.95
Vibrant ruby red in colour, this plummy Merlot has hints of vanilla and chocolate with velvety tannins, crisp acidity and a fragrant finish.
Mencia, Merayo, DO Bierzo, 2016, Spain	25.95
From 80yr old vineyards, this red has all the fresh, perfumed characters and ripe red fruit typical of Mencia.
Cotes du Rhone, Le Reveur, Guillaume Gonnet, 2015, France	26.95
A blend of Grenache & Syrah, soft but full flavoured with great structure to support the ample fruit.
Primitivo, Criteri, Schola Sarmanti, Salento, 2015, Italy	27.95
This has all the wonderful primitivo traits and more. An intense fragrance of rich, dark berry fruit and subtle spice. Well structured and warm, this full bodied red has a classic Italian finish with fine chewy tannins.
Shiraz, Thistledown, Langhorne Creek, 2014, Australia	28.95
Great depth of ripe plum and blackberry fruit flavours. A full bodied wine with a succulent palate, lively spices and fine velvety tannins.
Carmenere Reserve, Barrel Select, Santa Ema, 2014, Chile	27.95
This epitomises the value and quality which Chile can offer. Superb balance and concentration of black cherries, herbs, spicy black pepper and chocolate.
Paal Syrah, Bodegas Caudalia, Navarra, 2013, Spain	31.95
Outstanding aromatic complexity that evolves into spices, black pepper and cocoa with hints of dark fruit and liquorice. Well structured in the mouth, with the dark fruit prominent, whilst the finish has outstanding silky tannins providing roundness and a long, intense and elegant finish. 100% Syrah with no oak.
Pinot Noir, Tinpot Hut, Marlborough 2015, New Zealand	33.95
Aromatics of ripe cherry & plum shine through to the palate & are complimented by subtle spicy notes, silky & lingering finish.
Malbec, Zuccardi Q, Mendoza, 2015, Argentina	36.95
Deep red, with complex aromas of ripe red fruits. Dark plums and blackberries combine with notes of vanilla and coffee. This expressive wine has firm, sweet tannins giving a delightful finish.
Rioja Reserva, Bodegas Luis Canas 2012, Spain	39.95
A delicious Reserva from one of the top Rioja Bodegas. It has a dark berry fruit nose and an elegant, flavourful blackberry and raspberry palate together with complex layers of oak, cocoa and balsam hints. It displays very good structure, real elegance and length.
Montepulciano d'Abruzzo, Farnese, Colline Teramane, DOCG, 2011, Italy	39.95
Intense and persistent with a spicy bouquet, and hints of chocolate and tar that complement the vibrant dark fruit character. On the palate it is very well balanced and displays great structure and tannins.

One Man Band, Iona, Elgin, 2011, South Africa Syrah, Cab Sauv &amp; Merlot grapes are blended here to produce a delicious silky smooth warming wine with spice and gentle game notes. Layered with fragrant sweet, ripe cherry and blackberry flavours, with almond and white pepper tones. Great with red meat.	45.95
Cair, Dominio de Cair Crianza, Ribero del Duero, 2012, Spain One of the most award winning wines from the Ribero. Elegant and refined, with an intense and complex nose of blackcurrant fruit, leather and dark chocolate and a wonderfully complex and succulent palate of black fruits with well integrated oak. This wine demonstrates how power and finesse can be brilliantly combined; the flavours go on and on.	49.95
Emma, Zuccardi, Paraje Altamira, Mendoza, 2013, Argentina A stunning, deep red colour with aromas of ripe, black fruits such as blueberries blackberry and cassis. The weight and texture of the wine are testament to the quality of fruit and well managed oak. It is voluminous and rich with silky tannins and a refreshing acidity. This single vineyard, grand cru style 100% Bonarda is a multiple award winner. A personal favourite !	54.95
Shiraz, G.A.M, Mitolo, McLaren Vale, 2013, Australia Intense, complex and bright nose of black cherry and blackened cedar wood with complexing dried Mediterranean herbs. The palate is a true reflection of one of the great vintages of the region with immense yet savoury flavours of vanilla, dark plums and dry, earthy flavours reminiscent of the clay soil from which it is grown. Truly memorable !	59.95
Pinot Noir, Moonlight Race, Burn Cottage, Central Otago, 2014, New Zealand A myriad of mulberry, wild thyme and enticing savoury undertones are interwoven with layers of ripe summer berries. The palate displays both generosity and restraint, with plump and supple tannins that are supported by an amalgam of summer ripened plums, dark cherry and a freshness reminiscent of ripe red fruits. The finish is long, the wine showing lovely fruit purity and definition.	69.95
Amarone della Valpolicella Classico, Tommasi, 2013, Italy Family owned winery using their hillside vineyards for the production of this rich classic wine. Displaying ripe plum and black cherry fruit with notes of mocha, raisin and mineral on the soft luscious finish.	69.95

Reserve List

Meursault Blagny 1er Cru, Domaine Matrot, 2012, France 89.00

Thierry Matrot's Meursault Blagny soars beyond recent feats. The nose, initially, is rather reserved, just hinting at orchard fruit. Proust would love the palate, reminiscent of warm madeleines and slightly almondy, warm cake. Opulent, with a lovely texture and old, vine fruit concentration, this has a good structure - silky through to a long finish

Puligny Montrachet, Les Meix, Olivier Leflaive, 2014, France 79.00

Located just beneath the renowned premier cru village of Pucelles, Les Meix has some of that enviable bone structure. Upright and dynamic, the wine starts with notes of white flowers and ripe, creamy fruit before the characteristic laser-beam of acidity breaks on the mid-palate in a wave of energy. The finish is long and crystalline, with the familiar tang of saline on the finish.

Suilven Chardonnay, Thistledown, 2015, Australia 69.95

One of those wines that tastes every bit as good as it looks, this Scottish/Aussie collaboration eschews the leaner, reductive, early picked style that is favoured by some winemakers Down Under in favour of something a little more substantial and textured. Deftly oaked, oatmealy and refreshing with a focus and minerality that wouldn't look out of place in the Cote de Beaune.

Caiarossa, Rosso di Toscana IGT, Caiarossa, 2006, Italy 79.00

Situated in the heart of the Val di Cecina, on the Tuscan coast. The winery was founded in 1998 and it was eventually acquired in 2004 by Eric Albada Jelgersma, a Dutch entrepreneur with a great passion for wine and also the owner of Château Giscours and Château du Tertre - two Grand Crus classé in Margaux, Bordeaux. 23% Sangiovese, 22% Cabernet Franc, 21% Merlot, 12% Cabernet Sauvignon. 8% Alicante, 6% Syrah, 6% Petit Verdot and 2% Mourvedre Aromas of flowers, berries, nuts and mineral. Full-bodied, with chewy tannins and pretty fruit. A hints of wood on the palate, this wine has developed beautifully. Bordeaux meets Tuscany.

Rapace, Uccelliera, Toscana IGT, Montalcino, 2011, Italy 70.00

At present Uccelliera is without any doubt one of the top estates of Montalcino, the Brunello and Rosso are complex, intense extremely supple and drinkable. A small quantity of an IGT/proprietary wine, Rapace (meaning "bird of prey" in line with the name of the estate), a blend of Sangiovese, Merlot and Cabernet is also produced. This is an elegant version, laced with graphite, cherry, cedar and loam flavors. Turns lean and firm on the finish, with a chalky sensation emerging. Without doubt a food wine !

Chateau Beaucastel, Chateauneuf Du Pape Rouge, 2009, France 115.00

Beaucastel is one of the top properties in Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Year after year, they produce a multidimensional, age-worthy wine. Although Mourvèdre and Grenache, at about 30% each, comprise the majority of the blend, Beaucastel uses all 13 grape varieties permitted in the appellation, which may explain the phenomenal complexity of their wines, especially the 2009.

Chateau Léoville-Barton, St Julien, 2004, France 129.00

Anthony Barton was not over-estimating this wine when he compared it to his outstanding 1996 - it is unquestionably of super Second Growth quality. With its more masculine style, this is always the star performer of the Barton brace and the 2004 expresses all that is best about this aristocratic estate. The nose is very fine and displays multi-faceted, lively fruit characteristics. The palate is dense with delicious, ripe, complex blackcurrant fruit and a fabulous, long, cool finish. This is a resounding success for the Barton family and is undoubtedly one of the star wines of the vintage.
