Wines

Sauvignon Blanc, Greywacke, Marlborough, 2018, New Zealand 10.95 glass

Greywacke was created by Kevin Judd, formerly chief winemaker at Cloudy Bay. 2018 marks the 10th anniversary of this wine. Kevin first registered the Greywacke name in 1993, with the vague notion that he might one day want to use it to make a wine of his own. 16 years later the dream became a reality, with the first vintage produced in 2009. Kevin's wines have continued to gain international recognition as benchmarks for the very best from Marlborough. This just released vintage exhibits Kevin's trademark panache – an aromatic salsa-like fusion of ripe summer fruit and fragrant Asian spices, with nectarines, yellow peaches, rock melon, grapefruit and a splash of passionfruit. Indulge !

Prima Mano, Primitivo, Amano, 2015, Italy

10.95 glass

Mark Shannon and Elvezia Sbalchiero, the duo behind A Mano, have worked in the wine business for most of their lives. By producing high quality wines, Mark and Elvezia have succeeded in making Primitivo one of Italy's most talked about grape varieties. They use only the best grapes from 70-100 year old vines and focus solely on quality and a modern style. 2015 was a great harvest in Puglia and the grapes reached excellent levels of aroma ripeness producing a deep purple wine with a rich, full bouquet showing black cherries, violet and mocha notes. Full of juicy blackberry, cherry and plum fruit, with dark mineral and peppery spice on the palate. Impressively concentrated and lush without being heavy or sweet. This wine has a freshness and an acidity that is instantly inviting, leading to a persistent aftertaste with balance and structure. Prima Mano means "finest quality" in Italian. This wine most certainly is that !

White Wine

- Trebbiano d'Abruzzo Azienda Vinicola Arche DOC 2017, Italy 19.95
Super soft, ripe Trebbiano with lovely white pear and apple.
- Chenin Blanc, The Veldt Range, 2017, South Africa 22.95
Aromas reminiscent of melon & lychees with soft tropical fruit.
- Sauvignon Blanc, Montes, Casablanca, 2017, Chile 25.95
Intense aromatics of herbs and cut grass on the nose, with grapefruit, lime and white peach on the palate.
- Bianco, Amano, Puglia, 2017, Italy 25.95
A blend of Fiano Minutolo and Greco. It has plenty of aromas of ripe pears, orange blossom, white peaches and a hint of jasmine on the nose. Crisp clean flavours with concentration and length. A wine that just makes you smile !
- Muscadet, La Roche Blanche, Domaine des Herbauges, 2017, France 26.95
Bottled straight of the lees to add extra complexity makes this classic bone dry white wine the perfect companion to shellfish & seafood.
- Pinot Grigio, Tolloy, Sudtiro, Alto Adige, 2017, Italy 27.95
A complex pinot grigio with an intense & ample bouquet that transitions from nuances of pear, white peach & melon to delicate floral notes, hand selected grapes from the Italian Dolomites.
- Godello, Bodegas y Vinedos Merayo, 2016, Spain 27.95
This inviting, elegant expression of godello offers scents of green apple, pear, and plenty of citrusy spritz. Palate is tart with green herbal notes & ripe, carefully handled fruit beneath.
- Rioja Blanco, Campillo, Fermentado en Barrica, 2017, Spain 27.95
This wine brings the freshness and vigour of youth and the nuances provided by its stay for 41 days in fine French oak.
- Gruner Veltliner, Domaine Wachau, Terrassen, 2017, Austria 29.95
A light introduction to Gruner Veltliner & the Wachau, fresh, aromatic and racy. Pure drinking pleasure. A fantastic aperitif.
- Picpoul de Pinet, Calmel & Joseph, 2017, France 29.95
Invigorating acidity is integrated into the layers of fresh apple, lemon zest and white fleshed fruits. A Picpoul that will grace a dining table or be enjoyed as an aperitif.
- Sauvignon Blanc, Tintop Hut, Marlborough, 2017, New Zealand 34.95
Aromas of passion fruit, blackcurrant, lemongrass and fresh thyme make this a truly stunning example of a Marlborough Sauvignon.
- Chardonnay, Vignoble Peyroli, Mas La Chevaliere, 2016, France 35.95
A fine bouquet of white flowers and ripe pear leads to a generous and creamy palate. The finish is long and elegant, with a well balanced acidity to support the stone fruit and floral character.
- Riesling, Organic Trocken, Dreissigacker, 2016, Germany 35.95
Ripe, clean scented and zesty. The estate proprietor Jochen Dreissigacker is very proud of his dedicated approach to making organic wines of the highest quality and also outstanding value.
- Gavi di Gavi, Iugarara, Giustiniana, DOCG, 2017, Italy 36.95
Tight, nervy and full of energy, and with a delicious core of tongue-teasing preserved lemon and juicy white apple flesh, this is a superior example of Gavi.

Vermentino di Sardegna DOC, Tino, Mora & Memo, 2017, Italy The best vermentino comes from Sardinia & this is the best vermentino in Sardinia. Floral lift on the nose with a great oily texture of stone fruit.	37-95
Lugana, I Frati, Ca dei Frati, 2017, Italy Light yellow in colour with a concentrated but fresh perfume of white flowers, peaches and ripe lemons. On the palate it has excellent depth and balance, with lovely richness and a crisp, lively finish. A stunning wine from Lake Garda.	39-95
Albarino, Pazo Senorans, Rias Baixas, 2017, Spain The leading producer in Rias Baixas in North West Spain, Pazo de Senorans is family run and has been producing wonderfully crafted, award winning, single varietal wines since 1989. Offering a satisfying balance of power and finesse, the palate is lush and round with good body and acidity. Aromas of nectarine, fresh figs, orange zest and white flowers come through on the nose, accompanied by citrus and more exotic tropical fruit flavours on the palate and mineral finish.	41-95
Harlem to Hope, B. Vintners, Stellenbosch, 2016, South Africa Gavin Bruwers four way blend of mostly Chenin with Semillon & dry Muscat is a partially barrel fermented number with an appealing floral lift, grapey sweetness, creamy lees and a hint of oak. Stunning !	41-95
Pinot Gris, Katz, Clement Klur, Alsace, 2015, France Certified organic and following biodynamic practices, this small estate of just 7 hectares is nestled on steep slopes in the heart of Alsace. A round and tempting wine which is straw yellow in colour. Elegant and flowery nose with hints of acacia and lime. A smooth and fresh palate echoing the exotic lime notes and a sweet fruit finish. A very classy glass of Pinot Gris!	42-95
Chablis, Domaine Vincent Dampt, 2015, France Citrus and white fruits with a hint of minerality on the finish. Its nice balance and complexity comes from old vines. Vincent Dampt is one of Chablis' rising stars. The youngest generation of an impressive Chablis lineage, Vincent is the son of Daniel Dampt and grandson of Jean Defaix, both admired Chablis producers.	44-95
Sancerre, Domaine Nozay, 2017, France Ripe grapefruit aromas which are also very limestone and flinty in character. Attractive mouth filling texture with real substance and breadth. Quite a serious style here which shows in the finish, charged with zippy, crunchy structure.	43-95
Gewurtztraminer, Joseph, J.Hofstatter, Alto Adige, 2017, Italy This is a highly individual wine and a copybook Gewürztraminer: full, bright straw yellow, concentrated with a strong aromatic character reminiscent of dried flowers and rose petals which develops and intensifies in the glass. Full-bodied, luscious but dry on the palate, the opulence cut by vibrant, firm acidity.	44-95
Alba Antiqua, Malvasia Istarska, Matosevic, 2014, Croatia This 100% Istrian Malvasia is skin-fermented for several days, following which it is aged on fine lees in French oak and acacia barrels for 30 months. The wine has extraordinary power and unusual freshness, reminiscent of Malvasias produced in ancient Mediterranean style with a lot of tertiary aromas. Please try !	48-95
Soave Classico, La Rocca, Pieropan, 2016, Italy Classic La Rocca aromas of almond essence and honey lead to an elegant and beautifully balanced palate, with notes of vanilla and almond kernel, ripe apricots and exotic fruit. The long finish has a light mineral edge.	49-95
Assyrtiko, Vassaltis, Santorini, 2017, Greece Exquisitely fresh, clean and vibrantly mineral, this gorgeously moreish white screams of Santorini's volcanic terroir. Aromatic aromas of fresh citrus and grapefruit, giving way to a dry, mineral, yet succulent palate, dripping with nectarines, wet stones and sea salt.	59-95

Red Wine

- Sangiovese Rubicon, Azienda Vincola Arche 2017, Italy 19.95
This is a lovely soft, spicy Sangiovese. Dark ruby in colour with herbaceous cherries and violets on the nose.
- Carignan, Vieilles Vignes, Mont Rocher, 2016, France 22.95
100% carignan from old vines producing a well-structured wine with dark berry fruit & spice on the palate with a zingy & uplifting finish.
- Merlot, Montes, Colchagua Valley, 2016, Chile 25.95
Vibrant ruby red in colour, this plummy Merlot has hints of vanilla and chocolate with velvety tannins, crisp acidity and a fragrant finish.
- Mencia, Merayo, DO Bierzo, 2017, Spain 26.95
From 80yr old vineyards, this red has all the fresh, perfumed characters and ripe red fruit typical of Mencia.
- Cotes du Rhone, Le Reveur, Guillaume Gonnet, 2016, France 27.95
A blend of Grenache & Syrah, soft but full flavoured with great structure to support the ample fruit.
- Primitivo, Criteri, Schola Sarmienti, Salento, 2016, Italy 27.95
This has all the wonderful primitivo traits and more. An intense fragrance of rich, dark berry fruit and subtle spice. Well structured and warm, this full bodied red has a classic Italian finish with fine chewy tannins.
- Shiraz, Thistledown, Langhorne Creek, 2015, Australia 29.95
Great depth of ripe plum and blackberry fruit flavours. A full bodied wine with a succulent palate, lively spices and fine velvety tannins.
- Carmenere Reserve, Barrel Select, Santa Ema, 2016, Chile 28.95
This epitomises the value and quality which Chile can offer. Superb balance and concentration of black cherries, herbs, spicy black pepper and chocolate.
- Solanera, Vinas Viejas, Bodegas Castano, Yecla, 2015, Spain 33.95
A blend of 65% Monastrell, 20% low-yield Cabernet Sauvignon and 15% low-yield Garnacha. A beautiful dark shiny red colour, it displays notes of graphite, acacia flowers, black raspberries, blueberries and blackcurrants. Full-bodied and intense on the palate with silky sweet tannins. Stunning wine from the SE of Spain.
- Papeta, Domaine De la Senche, Minervois, 2015, France 33.95
Grown on the limestone slopes of Borie de Moline, this wine has a unique structure inspired by the flavours of the Minervois. Full-bodied and vibrant with personality, this blend of Syrah and Carignan is a tribute to a very special 'Papeta'
- Pinot Noir, Tinpot Hut, Marlborough 2016, New Zealand 35.95
Aromatics of ripe cherry & plum shine through to the palate & are complimented by subtle spicy notes, silky & lingering finish.
- Malbec, Zuccardi Q, Mendoza, 2015, Argentina 38.95
Deep red, with complex aromas of ripe red fruits. Dark plums and blackberries combine with notes of vanilla and coffee. This expressive wine has firm, sweet tannins giving a delightful finish.
- Rioja Reserva, Bodegas Luis Canas 2013, Spain 41.95
A delicious Reserva from one of the top Rioja Bodegas. It has a dark berry fruit nose and an elegant, flavourful blackberry and raspberry palate together with complex layers of oak, cocoa and balsam hints. Structure, elegance and length.

Montepulciano d’Abruzzo, Farnese, Colline Teramane, DOCG, 2012, Italy 40.95

Intense and persistent with a spicy bouquet, and hints of chocolate and tar that complement the vibrant dark fruit character. On the palate it is very well balanced and displays great structure and tannins.

One Man Band, Iona, Elgin, 2011, South Africa 46.95

Syrah, Cab Sauv & Merlot grapes are blended here to produce a delicious silky smooth warming wine with spice and gentle game notes. Layered with fragrant sweet, ripe cherry and blackberry flavours, with almond and white pepper tones. Great with red meat.

Canace, Cantina Diomede, Puglia, 2014, Italy 48.95

A deeply red coloured wine which will leave beautiful tears inside your glass. It is of extraordinary complexity, with a bouquet that offers warm spices, cocoa, coffee, liquorice and ripe cherries and plums on the nose. Soft and velvety, almost chocolaty, on the palate, it is full-bodied with fresh acidity and velvety tannins. 85% Nero Di Troia 15% Aglianico

Cair, Dominio de Cair Crianza, Ribero del Duero, 2012, Spain 49.95

One of the most award winning wines from the Ribero. Elegant and refined, with an intense and complex nose of blackcurrant fruit, leather and dark chocolate and a wonderfully complex and succulent palate of black fruits with well integrated oak. This wine demonstrates how power and finesse can be brilliantly combined; the flavours go on and on.

Zinfandel ‘Old Vines’, Seghesio, Sonoma County , 2013, USA 67.95

Although “old vine” is often loosely interpreted in the wine industry, the average age of these vines is approximately 70 years old. Deeply perfumed aromas of raspberry and old vine Zin’s intrinsic briary spiciness. Layered bright fruit flavours reminiscent of a crusted cherry pie with baking spice undertones. Low yields in the vineyard preserved the vibrant natural acidity and balanced tannins, leading into a long, persistent finish.

Amarone della Valpolicella Classico, Tommasi, 2013, Italy 69.95

Family owned winery using their hillside vineyards for the production of this rich classic wine. Displaying ripe plum and black cherry fruit with notes of mocha, raisin and mineral on the soft luscious finish.

Serpico, Mitolo, Cabernet Sauvignon, McLaren Vale, 2013, Australia 69.95

Serpico, the flagship Mitolo Cabernet, is made using the Amarone technique of drying grapes before fermentation. This process concentrates flavour contributing mid palate plushness, complexity and mouth coating yet silky tannins. It’s a unique wine that is rich and structured with great balance, absolutely stunning !

Rose

Reserve List

- Meursault, Clos du Cromin, Patrick Javillier, 2015, France 89.00
Clos du Cromin is situated at the beginning of the hill of Volnay. Its aromatic power and its exceptional balance make it one of the “Grands Seigneurs” of Burgundy. The nose is expressive with fruit notes. On the palate there are more fruit notes, particularly apple and pear. The palate is round and displays attractive freshness. This wine is balanced, pleasant and persistent on the palate. Its style is classic Meursault.
- Puligny Montrachet, Francois Carillon 1611, 2014, France 84.00
The Carillon family has been living in the small village of Puligny-Montrachet in Burgundy's Côte de Beaune since the sixteenth century. François Carillon is the current steward of the family's land and focuses his attention on making fine, lacy Chardonnay. The 2014 Puligny-Montrachet succeeds in being delicate and light bodied as well as concentrated.
- Chardonnay ‘Collezione Privata’, Isole Olena, Tuscany, 2016, Italy 69.95
Paolo De Marchi grafted Chardonnay onto existing vines on the Isole e Olena estate and 1987 became the first vintage of the ‘Collezione De Marchi Chardonnay’ Golden in colour with a rich yet mineral perfume on the nose, with aromas of grilled almonds and butter. On the palate, full and intense, with a perfect balance of ripe, yellow fruit, buttery biscuits and crisp, minerality.
- Brunello di Montalcino, Uccelliera, Toscano, 2011, Italy 79.00
Sumptuous, full-bodied fruit flavours of strawberries and plums, mixed with salt, spice, tobacco and undergrowth characteristics, finishing on notes of kirsch and crème de mure. A blend of vines with various exposures and soils centred on Castelnuovo del Abate on the south-east side of Montalcino. This is a warm part of Montalcino but the estate's high vineyard range, from 150 to 350 metres above sea level, cool fermentations and use of large casks as well as small barriques, help to make this generous, ripe, moreish and refined.
- Caiarossa, Rosso di Toscana IGT, Caiarossa, 2006, Italy 79.00
Situated in the heart of the Val di Cecina, on the Tuscan coast. The winery was founded in 1998 and it was eventually acquired in 2004 by Eric Albada Jelgersma, a Dutch entrepreneur with a great passion for wine and also the owner of Château Giscours and Château du Tertre. 23% Sangiovese, 22% Cabernet Franc, 21% Merlot, 12% Cabernet Sauvignon. 8% Alicante, 6% Syrah, 6% Petit Verdot and 2% Mourvedre Aromas of flowers, berries, nuts and mineral. Full-bodied, with chewy tannins and pretty fruit. A hint of wood on the palate, this wine has developed beautifully. Bordeaux meets Tuscany.
- Pinot Noir, Farrside, By Farr, Geelong, 2015, Australia 89.00
An elevated offering of pinot noir from By Farr. We all know that whole bunch in fermentation plays a role here, but it's the site/vines that count most for Nick Farr. Love that brambly, forest floor, pickled cherry, sweet spice scent. Has that garrigue, savoury character through and through. Finesse to the max. Svelte, elegance, understated. Delicious, moreish fruit, spice and mineral flavours. Wonderful lingering flavours and aromas. This is an outstanding wine.
- Chateau Beaucastel, Chateauneuf Du Pape Rouge, 2010, France 129.00
Beaucastel is one of the top properties in Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Year after year, they produce a multidimensional, age-worthy wine. Although Mourvèdre and Grenache, at about 30% each, comprise the majority of the blend, Beaucastel uses all 13 grape varieties permitted in the appellation, which may explain the phenomenal complexity of their wines, especially the 2010.
- Chateau Magdelaine, 1er Grand Cru, St Emillion, 2005, France 159.00
From the stable of Jean-Pierre Moueix (owners of Chateau Petrus), this estate has now been absorbed by the nearby and superb Chateau Belair-Monange. One of only 13 1er Grand Cru Classe St Emilions from the whole region, this wine really shone in the great 2005 vintage. Exhibiting gorgeous kirsch liqueur notes with some plum and Asian spice and dense ruby/garnet to the rim, this 2005 is full-bodied, rich, and bigger and more masculine than this wine tends to be. It is a beauty, with loads of fruit, great purity and texture.
