Pratto, Ca dei Frati, Lake Garda, 2016, Italy

	10.95
The Dal Cero family has transformed their Ca' dei Frati property, situated on the southern shores of Lake Garda, into a model Italian estate over the past two decades. Back in 1987, they had 12 hectares of vineyard but now, following the purchase of a large chunk of prime vineyard in 2008, they have over 160 hectares. This increase in quantity has been matched by an increase in quality and today they remain the best producer in Lugana.	glass
The trio of Turbiana 50%, Chardonnay 25% and Sauvignon Blanc 25% gives this wine a lively aromatic quality on the nose with notes of tropical fruit and great minerality. On the palate, an initial hint of sweetness is followed by a well-balanced blend of fruit and savoury components, ending with a hint of stony minerality. A very beautiful wine indeed !	43.95

Moveable Feast, The Drift Farm, Overberg, 2015, South Africa

This is an estate blend of Malbec 40% Syrah 32% Pinot Noir 10% Touriga Nacional 10% Tannat 9% using only grapes grown on this unique Overberg Highland's farm. Driven by a desire to make individual, superb quality wines with exceptional character The Drift wines are carefully crafted by winemaker Bruce Jack using only grapes grown on the farm. Each variety has been paired with a specific soil type and slope. All vineyards lie between 390m and 550m above sea level. Because the vineyards face in various directions, with various row directions, they have been able to embrace the complexity of the farm, and so transfer that soul into the wine. On the nose the wine shows typical Drift farm ripe, black berry fruit and herbaciousness, with white pepper and a touch of cigar box. On the palate the dominant ripe fruit shows a more elegant red spectrum with cherry, raspberries and plum standing above an under-layer of enticing dark chocolate and darker black fruits like mulberry.	10.95

White Wine

- Trebbiano , Terre Allegre, Veneto, IGT 2018, Italy 20.95
Super soft, ripe Trebbiano with lovely white pear and apple.
- Chenin Blanc, Sangoma, 2018, South Africa 24.95
Aromas reminiscent of melon & lychees with soft tropical fruit.
- Sauvignon Blanc, Montes, Casablanca, 2018, Chile 25.95
Intense aromatics of herbs and cut grass on the nose, with grapefruit, lime and white peach on the palate.
- Muscadet, Domaine des Herbauges, 2018, France 26.95
Bottled straight of the lees to add extra complexity makes this classic bone dry white wine the perfect companion to shellfish & seafood.
- Bianco, Amano, Puglia, 2018, Italy 26.95
A blend of Fiano Minutolo and Greco. It has plenty of aromas of ripe pears, orange blossom, white peaches and a hint of jasmine on the nose. Crisp clean flavours with concentration and length. A wine that just makes you smile !
- Torrontes, Amalaya, Calchaqui Valley, Salta, 2018, Argentina 26.95
Argentina's white speciality is Torrontes, here with 10% Riesling added. This trophy winning wine is silky on the palate, refreshing and bursting with aromas of citrus, blossom and grapefruit. A great aperitif or for gently spicy dishes.
- Rioja Blanco, Campillo, Fermentado en Barrica, 2018, Spain 28.95
This wine brings the freshness and vigour of youth and the nuances provided by its stay for 41 days in fine French oak.
- Vinho Verde, Reserva, Quinta De Azevedo, 2018, Portugal 28.95
This wine is clear and bright with youthful tints and an intense aroma of well-ripened fruit, such as peaches and nectarines. On the palate, it is creamy with aromatic notes of ripe fruit with great concentration.
- Pinot Grigio, San Simone, Friuli DOC Grave, 2018, Italy 29.95
This Pinot Grigio wine from Italy has delicious crisp acidity with lime and pear flavours. The fruit intensity balances with freshness to make this a fine example of great Friuli white wine.
- Alice, Produttori Di Manduria, Salento, 2018, Italy 33.95
From the heel of Italy, using 100% verdea grapes this is a fascinating white wine, straw yellow in colour, the nose shows aromatic white flowers mixed with citrus notes as well as pear and pineapple. Dry, fresh and mineral.
- Sauvignon Blanc, Tinpot Hut, Marlborough, 2018, New Zealand 36.95
Aromas of passion fruit, blackcurrant, lemongrass and fresh thyme make this a truly stunning example of a Marlborough Sauvignon.
- Chardonnay, Vignoble Peyroli, Mas La Chevaliere, 2016, France 37.95
A fine bouquet of white flowers and ripe pear leads to a generous and creamy palate. The finish is long and elegant, with a well balanced acidity to support the stone fruit and floral character.
- Riesling, Organic Trocken, Dreissigacker, 2017, Germany 36.95
Ripe, clean scented and zesty. The proprietor Jochen Dreissigacker has a dedicated approach to making organic wines of the highest quality and value.
- Gavi di Gavi, Iugarara, Giustiniana, DOCG, 2018, Italy 36.95
Tight, nervy and full of energy, and with a delicious core of tongue-teasing preserved lemon and juicy white apple flesh, this is a superior example of Gavi.

Vermentino di Sardegna DOC, Tino, Mora & Memo, 2018, Italy The best vermentino comes from Sardinia & this is the best vermentino in Sardinia. Floral lift on the nose with a great oily texture of stone fruit.	37-95
Lugana, I Frati, Ca dei Frati, 2018, Italy Light yellow in colour with a concentrated but fresh perfume of white flowers, peaches and ripe lemons. On the palate it has excellent depth and balance, with lovely richness and a crisp, lively finish. A stunning wine from Lake Garda.	39-95
Albarino, Pazo Senorans, Rias Baixas, 2018, Spain The leading producer in Rias Baixas in North West Spain, Pazo de Senorans is family run and has been producing wonderfully crafted, award winning, single varietal wines since 1989. Offering a satisfying balance of power and finesse, the palate is lush and round with good body and acidity. Aromas of nectarine, fresh figs, orange zest and white flowers come through on the nose, accompanied by citrus and more exotic tropical fruit flavours on the palate and mineral finish.	42-95
Sancerre, Domaine Nozay, 2017, France Ripe grapefruit aromas which are also very limestone and flinty in character. Attractive mouth filling texture with real substance and breadth. Quite a serious style here which shows in the finish, charged with zippy, crunchy structure.	43-95
Chablis, Domaine Vincent Dampt, 2017, France Citrus and white fruits with a hint of minerality on the finish. Its nice balance and complexity comes from old vines. Vincent Dampt is one of Chablis' rising stars. The youngest generation of an impressive Chablis lineage, Vincent is the son of Daniel Dampt and grandson of Jean Defaix, both admired Chablis producers.	44-95
Gruner Veltliner Federspiel, Hogl, Ried Schon, 2018, Austria A classic fresh and lively Gruner Veltliner from the Wachau vineyards along the Danube in Weissenkirchen and Loiben. Notes of honeydew and florals, with a lovely, almost creamy nose and a bit of white pepper spice. Fresh and nicely balanced acidity. Great as an aperitif or with food.	44-95
Wild Sauvignon, Greywacke, Marlborough, 2016, New Zealand Fermented entirely with naturally occurring yeast, this is an alternative style of Sauvignon Blanc from Kevin Judd of Cloudy Bay fame, that is both intricate and textural with a rich, succulent palate finishing crisp and long with a flinty dryness.	49-95
Fiano Di Avellino, DOCG, Guido Marsella, 2016, Italy Known as 'Mr Fiano' locally Guido Marsella is devoted to this aromatic white grape. Determined to bring some kudos and pride back to this overlooked variety, he has, over the last 20 years, worked tirelessly in his vineyard on the sun-baked hillsides in the heart of Campania. The nose is reminiscent of ash and incense, roasted hazelnut, smoked, melon, peach and herbaceous on a mineral background. On the palate it is fresh, deep, enveloping and of great energy	47-95
Alba Antiqua, Malvasia Istarska, Matosevic, 2014, Croatia This 100% Istrian Malvasia is skin-fermented for several days, following which it is aged on fine lees in French oak and acacia barrels for 30 months. The wine has extraordinary power and unusual freshness, reminiscent of Malvasias produced in ancient Mediterranean style with a lot of tertiary aromas. Please try !	48-95
Soave Classico, La Rocca, Pieropan, 2016, Italy Classic La Rocca aromas of almond essence and honey lead to an elegant and beautifully balanced palate, with notes of vanilla and almond kernel, ripe apricots and exotic fruit. The long finish has a light mineral edge.	49-95
Assyrtiko, Vassaltis, Santorini, 2017, Greece Exquisitely fresh, clean and vibrantly mineral, this gorgeously moreish white screams of Santorini's volcanic terroir. Aromatic aromas of fresh citrus and grapefruit, giving way to a dry, mineral, yet succulent palate, dripping with nectarines, wet stones and sea salt.	59-95

Reserve List

- Meursault, Clos du Cromin, Patrick Javillier, 2015, France 89.00
Clos du Cromin is situated at the beginning of the hill of Volnay. Its aromatic power and its exceptional balance make it one of the “Grands Seigneurs” of Burgundy. The nose is expressive with fruit notes. On the palate there are more fruit notes, particularly apple and pear. The palate is round and displays attractive freshness. This wine is balanced, pleasant and persistent on the palate. Its style is classic Meursault.
- Puligny Montrachet, Francois Carillon 1611, 2016, France 89.00
The Carillon family has been living in the small village of Puligny-Montrachet in Burgundy's Côte de Beaune since the sixteenth century. François Carillon is the current steward of the family's land and focuses his attention on making fine, lacy Chardonnay. The 2016 Puligny-Montrachet succeeds in being delicate and light bodied as well as concentrated.
- Chardonnay ‘Collezione Privata’, Isole Olena, Tuscany, 2017, Italy 69.95
Paolo De Marchi grafted Chardonnay onto existing vines on the Isole e Olena estate and 1987 became the first vintage of the ‘Collezione De Marchi Chardonnay’ Golden in colour with a rich yet minerally perfume on the nose, with aromas of grilled almonds and butter. On the palate, full and intense, with a perfect balance of ripe, yellow fruit, buttery biscuits and crisp, minerality.
- Caiarossa, Rosso di Toscana IGT, Caiarossa, 2006, Italy 94.00
Situating in the heart of the Val di Cecina, on the Tuscan coast. The winery was founded in 1998 and it was eventually acquired in 2004 by Eric Albada Jelgersma, a Dutch entrepreneur with a great passion for wine and also the owner of Château Giscours and Château du Tertre. 23% Sangiovese, 22% Cabernet Franc, 21% Merlot, 12% Cabernet Sauvignon. 8% Alicante, 6% Syrah, 6% Petit Verdot and 2% Mourvedre Aromas of flowers, berries, nuts and mineral. Full-bodied, with chewy tannins and pretty fruit. A hint of wood on the palate, this wine has developed beautifully. Bordeaux meets Tuscany.
- Pinot Noir, Farrside, By Farr, Geelong, 2016, Australia 89.00
An elevated offering of pinot noir from By Farr. We all know that whole bunch in fermentation plays a role here, but it's the site/vines that count most for Nick Farr. Love that brambly, forest floor, pickled cherry, sweet spice scent. Has that garrigue, savoury character through and through. Finesse to the max. Svelte, elegance, understated. Delicious, moreish fruit, spice and mineral flavours. Wonderful lingering flavours and aromas. This is an outstanding wine.
- Chateau Beaucastel, Chateauneuf Du Pape Rouge, 2010, France 134.00
Beaucastel is one of the top properties in Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Year after year, they produce a multidimensional, age-worthy wine. Although Mourvèdre and Grenache, at about 30% each, comprise the majority of the blend, Beaucastel uses all 13 grape varieties permitted in the appellation, which may explain the phenomenal complexity of their wines, especially the 2010.
- Beaune 1er Cru Greves, Jacques Prieur, 2013, France 94.00
In the small, select group of legendary Burgundy domaines is one of the finest: the Domaine Jacques Prieur. The style of wines is one characterized by opulent, aromatic profiles, rich textures and concentrated flavors. Deep crimson in colour, with a cherry rim, this offers red and black fruit and stony minerals on the nose and palate, fresh and aromatic with a heady array of violet and rose, allied to morello cherries the perfume sustained throughout a long, elegant finish.
- Chateau Magdelaine, 1er Grand Cru, St Emillion, 2009, France 164.00
From the stable of Jean-Pierre Moueix (owners of Chateau Petrus), this estate has now been absorbed by the nearby and superb Chateau Belair-Monange. One of only 13 1er Grand Cru Classe St Emilions form the whole region, this wine really shone in the great 2009 vintage. Exhibiting gorgeous kirsch liqueur notes with some plum and Asian spice and dense ruby/garnet to the rim, this 2009 is full-bodied, rich, and bigger and more masculine than this wine tends to be. It is a beauty, with loads of fruit, great purity and texture.
