	10.95 glass
Gašper is located in Goriška Brda, which makes up the two thirds of Collio stretching into Slovenia from Friuli-Venezia Giulia in north-eastern Italy. They have a climate ideally suited to viticulture, with its proximity to both the Adriatic Sea and the Alps providing dry, warm summers with cooling breezes during the crucial ripening period. Growing Slovenia's local varieties, deeply rooted in Germanic, Slavic and Roman cultural influences, they create wines in a modern, fresh style. 100% Ribolla Gialla, straw yellow in colour with golden highlights. The complex bouquet of fragrant ripe citrus, dried fruit, cedar & buttered toast continues onto a soft palate, which pleasantly combines creaminess from the oak with a long lasting mineral finish. A very food friendly wine !	43.95

7th Son, Mitolo, McLaren Vale, 2019, Australia

In a short period of time Mitolo has become recognized as one of the finest producers in McLaren Vale and all of Australia. Mitolo is a family owned business, started and led by Frank Mitolo and his vision of harnessing his Italian heritage to create a range of wines of individuality, integrity and utmost quality. The '7th Son' Grenache/Shiraz/Sagrantino is quite a different wine for Mitolo and an ode to two of McLaren Vale's most revered varieties. Grenache plays a leading role, giving a dark cherry lift with a silky mid-palate. Shiraz provides some weight, as well as dark fruits and earthy olive tapenade characters. Finally, Sagrantino, despite its low proportion, adds savoury tobacco and signature tannins giving a drying, snappy finish.	10.95 glass 43.95

The 2017 Puligny-Montrachet succeeds in being delicate and light bodied as well as concentrated.
- Chardonnay, Leeu Passant, Stellenbosch, 2018, South Africa 89.00
Every year the New World offers ever more genuinely great wines that make a nonsense those silly ideas of Old World superiority. In South Africa, it would be hard to find better examples than the Leeu Passant wines of Chris and Andrea Mullineux. This Chardonnay comes from a single vineyard planted on the higher loam-based slopes of Helderberg Mountain. The site has a maritime influence, producing fruit with incredible intensity of flavour and zestiness.
- Riesling Auslese, Dr. Loosen Erdener Pralat, Mosel, 1993, Germany 129.00
A small slice of perfection, the four-acre Erdener Prälat vineyard produces some of the greatest wines in the Mosel valley. Its 100 percent south-facing slopes, red slate soil and extraordinarily warm microclimate yield wines of unequalled power and nobility. Simply stunning !
- Caiarossa, Rosso di Toscana IGT, Caiarossa, 2006, Italy 120.00
Situated in the heart of the Val di Cecina, on the Tuscan coast. The winery was founded in 1998 and it was eventually acquired in 2004 by Eric Albada Jelgersma, a Dutch entrepreneur with a great passion for wine and also the owner of Château Giscours and Château du Tertre. 21% Merlot, 22% Cabernet Franc, 12% Cabernet Sauvignon, 23% Sangiovese, 6% Petit Verdot. Aromas of flowers, berries, nuts and mineral. Full-bodied, with chewy tannins and pretty fruit. This wine has developed beautifully. Bordeaux meets Tuscany.
- Brunello di Montalcino Reserva, Poggio Antico, DOCG, 2010, Italy 144.00
Only made during exceptional years from a very special selection. This is the only wine aged in both types of wood barrels (French and Slavonian) An intense ruby red, with garnet hues. Its bouquet is usually evolved and austere, with hints of wild berries, leather, and roasted coffee. In the mouth it has a fully developed rich structure, and is very elegant and smooth thanks to its rich tannins. It is extremely well balanced and rounded, with a persistent finish.
- Chateau Beaucastel, Chateauneuf Du Pape Rouge, 2001, France 144.00
Beaucastel is one of the top properties in Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Although all thirteen grape varieties are present, lending this red wine a rare complexity, Mourvèdre (30%) and Grenache (30%) are overwhelmingly dominant. Deeper ruby in color, mostly opaque. Cherries, raspberries, some earthiness and nice minerality on the nose. On the palate, this is medium to full bodied. Plenty of depth with nice layering in the glass. A lot of fruit left; cherries and raspberries and some black raspberries, over a dry earthy quality. Enjoy !
- Chateau Magdelaine, 1er Grand Cru, St Emillion, 2009, France 164.00
From the stable of Jean-Pierre Moueix (owners of Chateau Petrus), this estate has now been absorbed by the nearby and superb Chateau Belair-Monange. One of only 13 1er Grand Cru Classe St Emillions form the whole region, this wine really shone in the great 2009 vintage. Exhibiting gorgeous kirsch liqueur notes with some plum and Asian spice and dense ruby/garnet to the rim, this 2009 is full-bodied, rich, and bigger and more masculine than this wine tends to be. It is a beauty, with loads of fruit, great purity and texture.
